

Minutes October 26, 2017

Fall Luncheon

President, Judy Braman extended greetings to Members and guests.

Linda Perrin led us in O Canada and grace.

Members were introduced to 2017 NBSRT SJ scholarship winner , Rylee Kinsella by Scholarship Committee Chair Netta Chase.

Guests included Marion Williams, Senior Development Officer for UNB and Ed O'Keefe, president of the Men's PROBUS Club.

After a lovely meal, 1st Vice President, Brian Greig thanked St Marks for a wonderful meal and great service.

Mr. O'Keefe gave a brief recruitment speech to our male members.

Kathy Wilson read the names of those members who had passed on since our May meeting.

Moved by Brian Greig and seconded by Nancy Steele, that the minutes of the May 18, 2017 meeting be accepted as circulated. Carried.

Robert Taylor reviewed the written Treasurer's Report as presented.

Nancy Steele, Director, highlighted the new ad hoc NBSRT committees. The Ad Hoc Scholarship Committee was examining the feasibility of establishing a Provincial Scholarship, and the Ad Hoc Membership Committee was investigating ways to increase membership in our provincial organization.

Marilyn Lester went over what the Wellness committee was trying to accomplish.

Pat Roy, chair of the Social Committee over saw the drawing of the 50/50 and door prizes.

The members then enjoyed a wonderful stroll down memory lane with The Peas in a Pod, who played and sang old standards that had us smiling and singing along.

Brian Greig moved the adjournment of the meeting.

Respectfully submitted
